CHICKEN
Cholera Cure!

Thousands of dollars worth of chickens the every year from cholera.
It is more fatal to chickens than all other diseases combined. But the discovery of a remedy that positively cures it has been made, and it is convinced of its efficacy only requires a trial. A 50-cent bottle is enough for one hundred chickens. It is guaranteed. It, after saving two thirds of a bottle, the buyer is not thoroughly satisfied with it as a cure for Chicken Cholera, return it to the undersigned

THE MESSAGE.
CLEVELAND'S LAST CHARGE TO THE FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

His Reiteration in Stronger Language His Recommendations for Tariff Reform.

A SPEECH FULL OF SENSE AND TRUTH

House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., Dec. 8. The message of President Cleveland, delivered to the fiftieth Congress upon the re-assembling of its session, is as follows:

TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES: As you assemble for the discharge of the duties you have assumed as the representatives of a free and generous people, your meeting is marked by an interesting and impressive incident. With the expiration of the present term of the Congress, the first century of our constitutional existence as a nation will be completed.

Our survival for one hundred years is not sufficient to assure us that we are no longer in danger from fear in the maintenance, with all its promised blessings, of a government founded upon the freedom of the people. The time rather admonishes us to soberly inquire whether in the past we have always closely kept in the course of safety, and whether we have before us a way plain and clear which leads to happiness and prosperity.

The experiment of our Government was undertaken the clear object for our guidance was the Constitution. Deviate from the lines there laid down is a failure. It is only by a strict adherence to the direction they indicate and by restraint within the limitations they set that we can secure the world of the fitness of the American people for self-government. The equal and exact justice of which we boast as the underlying principle of our institutions should not be confined to the relations of our citizens to each other. The Government itself is under bond to the American people, that in the exercise of its functions and powers it will deal with the body of our citizens in a manner eminently honest and fair and absolutely just. It has agreed that American citizenship shall be the only credential necessary to the full and equal enjoyment of the rights and duties of equality before the law, and that no condition in life shall give rise to discrimination in the treatment of the people by their Government.

The citizens of our Republic in its early days richly indebted to full compliance with the letter of this bond, and now standing before him a clear field for individual endeavor. His tribute to the support of his Government was measured by the cost of its economical maintenance, and he was secure in the enjoyment of the remaining recompense of his study and contented toil. In those days the frugality of the people was stamped upon their Government and was enforced by the free, thoughtful and intelligent assent of the citizen. Constitutional limitations were not dreamed of by the fathers of the Republic; nor did the people ever entertain the notion of the aggregation of capital were either eradicated or sternly regulated and restrained. The pomp and glitter of government were not dreamed of by the fathers of the Republic; nor did the people ever entertain the notion of the aggregation of capital were either eradicated or sternly regulated and restrained. The pomp and glitter of government were not dreamed of by the fathers of the Republic; nor did the people ever entertain the notion of the aggregation of capital were either eradicated or sternly regulated and restrained.
